Entomological America.

Contents

The oviposition and carnivorous habits of the Green Migrant Grasshopper (Orchelimum gluterrimum Burmeister). Pia...Joseph L. Hancock

One of the smallest digger wasps.—Henry L. Viereck

A new species of roach of the genus Kakerlac (Loboptera) from southern Texas.—James A. G. Rehn

The calls of spiders.—Fred H. Lahee

Life histories of North American Geometridae.—LV.—Harry Dyar

A revised list of the Diptera of Bermuda.—Charles W. J ohnson

Diestrammena unicolor in North America.—A. P. Morse

Tanytarsus dyari Coquillette: pupa and adult exclusion.—A. Girault

A supposed Cynipid gall from the roots of goldenrod (Solidago).—A. Arsène Girault

Proceedings of the Club.—W. L. W. Field

Recent entomological literature

Published bi-monthly by the

CAMBRIDGE ENTOMOLOGICAL CLUB

Address: Care Boston Society of Natural History, Boston, Mass., U. S. A.

Yearly Subscription, $1. Single
Subscription price, per year, payable in advance.
U. S. and its Territories and Dependencies or in Canada in other countries.

Back Volumes:
A limited number of copies of volumes 1-9 can be obtained.
The price of volume 10 is $3.00. Volumes will not accompany order.

To Contributors:
MSS. should be typewritten whenever possible.
Separates, if desired, must be ordered in advance.
Fifty Separates of leading articles will be furnished at cost.

ADVERTISING RATES furnished upon application.

All Correspondence should be addressed to
CAMBRIDGE ENTOMOLOGIC
CARE BOSTON SOCIETY OF NATURAL
BERKELEY ST

A Regular Meeting of the Club is held in the Society of Natural History (entrance on Newbury each month except July and August. Meetings begin visiting Boston are cordially invited to be present.

EXCHANGES.

[Exchange notices (not over five lines) inserted free for subscribers.
they are received, and those at the top of the column will be removed only when received.]

AMARA. Being engaged in the study of this genus, I will determine sent numbered. I am also anxious to obtain specimens in other genera of Cara of the world, and will purchase or exchange for same. Roland Hayward, R.

WANTED.—Material for the study of the hybrid or polymorphic but larvae or pupae of arikunis or asynus, in most of prerupina or al-ichas. Liberal exchange. Specimens retained will be deposited in M. Field, Milton, Mass.

LEPIDOPTERA—For exchange, fertile eggs of Hemileuca maia.

I have a few specimens of C. collina and cinclus to exchange with W. T. Buxton, 17 Walter St., Somerville, Mass.

WANTED.—Ova, larvae or pupae of Limenitis versata and H. H. Newcomb, 35 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Will collect Diptera, Hymenoptera, Hemiptera and Coleoptera. Wou unnamed Buprestidae, Scarabaeidae, Cantharidae and Chrysomelidae. Pl Box 186, Montreal, Canada.